

UNITED FOR FAMILIES

'Bal Masque' transports guests to Germany

Event: Le Bal Masque

When: March 2, 6:30 p.m.

Where: Mariner Sands Country Club, Stuart

What: As part of the annual Le Bal Masque travel series, a new locale is explored every year, with the region's cultures and customs thematically woven into the entertainment, décor and cuisine.

This year, guests will be transported to the Black Forest of Germany, where they will experience the mystery and wonder of the enchanted forest that once lit the imaginations of the Brothers Grimm. Guests of this black-tie affair will partake of traditional German cuisine and libations, and enjoy entertainment from the Swing-ing Bavarians, who will perform Bavarian dances and Alpine yodeling.

Who: Penny Morin, Carissa Zerga, Michelle Cavil, Jessica VanValkenburgh, Donna DeMarchi, Amber Gilbert and Re-

From left, back row: Rebecca Beckett, Michelle Cavil, Amber Gilbert, Carissa Zerga, Donna DeMarchi, Jessica VanValkenburgh. Front row: Karln Torsiello, Penny Morin

becca Beckett

Sponsors: Seacoast National Bank; QVC; Secrets of Modern Parenting/Behavior Basics; Cloudspace; Ticktin Law Group; AC Advantage; SunTrust; Leopold Law; En Vogue Event Planning; Jane's Dance Boutique; Wealth Management of the Treasure Coast; Berger, Toombs, Elam, Gaines and Frank; Hugh Eighmie

Proceeds: Funds raised at Le Bal Masque

will go toward the Road to Success Program, which prepares teenagers for life outside the foster-care system by teaching independent-living skills such as financial planning and budgeting. Thanks to the Road to Success program, more teens are graduating high school and pursuing college educations.

Tickets: $125, or $875 for a table of eight

Information: (772) 528-0362